The Information Systems Program and its corporate affiliate The Boeing Corporation is pleased to announce the availability of three scholarship awards of $5,000 each in this Fall 2019 semester. Each award will go to applicants chosen by the IS Program, and payment of the awards will be applied to the recipients’ tuition accounts.

Purpose of the Program
This award is designed specifically to acknowledge and reward academically successful students who have also demonstrated effective campus citizenship and teamwork abilities/characteristics through personal initiative and extracurricular activities. Boeing encourages underrepresented and economically disadvantaged students to apply.

Candidates should also have a genuine strong interest in The Boeing Company, since scholarship recipients are encouraged to apply for Boeing summer internships if positions are available.

Eligibility
Candidates need to be full-time Information Systems majors and can be in their second, third, or fourth year of study. They must also have at least a 3.2 cumulative grade point average.

Candidates must have authorization to work in the United States on a full-time basis for other than training purposes (student/temporary visas do not qualify).

Meeting Boeing
Recipients will be invited to participate in Boeing-initiated campus activities during the academic year of the award. Recipients will have the opportunity to meet Boeing employees and to learn about internship and career opportunities.

Application Process
Applications must be submitted by 3:00 pm, Friday, October 18, 2019. For further details, please contact Susan Miller isinfo@andrew.cmu.edu.
