

UNDERGRADUATE POST-GRADUATION FELLOWSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Below are internship and fellowship opportunities through individual organizations that may be of interest to graduating IPS students or alumni with at least a Bachelor's.

Many deadlines are in early fall, so add reminders to your calendar and plan ahead – note that many of these fellowships are for US citizens, but other countries have equivalent fellowships.

Be sure to keep an eye out every Friday for Meghan Mattern's e-newsletter, Career & Internship Roundup. Past issues can be found here:

<https://www.cmu.edu/ips/cmuwsp/internships/internship-roundup-archive.html>

FOR UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS AND ALUMNI WITH AT LEAST A BA:

- Alfa Fellowship Program in Russia is a high-level professional development exchange program placing qualified young professionals in work assignments at leading organizations in Russia in the fields of business, economics, journalism, law, and public policy. Deadlines in December.
- Bienecke Scholarship Program for Graduate Studies is for college juniors of exceptional ability and achievement to receive $34,000 for graduate school in the arts, humanities, or social sciences. Deadline in January.
- Bosch Foundation Fellowship Program in Germany is a distinguished transatlantic initiative that each year offers twenty accomplished young Americans the opportunity to complete a high-level professional development program in Germany. Over the course of a nine-month program, Bosch Fellows complete two work phases at leading German institutions, both customized to each fellow's professional expertise, and attend three seminars with key decision-makers from the public and private sectors, taking place across Europe. No German language skills are required at the time of application. Deadlines in October.
- Carnegie Junior Fellows Program matches fellows with senior associates-academics, former government officials, lawyers, and journalists from around the world- to work on a variety of international affairs issues in DC. Deadline in November.
- The Christianson Grant is awarded to individuals aged 18-28 who have arranged their own work abroad programs. Proposed programs must be at least 6 months in length and emphasize a work component. Application deadlines in March, July & October.

- Fulbright Program funds a year abroad for individually designed study/research projects or an English Teaching Assistantship. CMU deadline in August. Contact our Fulbright Program Adviser, Dr. Richelle Bernazzoli (rbernazz@andrew.cmu.edu), if interested. US Citizens Only. (International students interested in the Fulbright Program must apply through the binational Fulbright Commissions/Foundations or U.S. Embassies.)
- Luce Scholars Program funds a year in Asia, including language training and individualized professional placement for young leaders who have had limited experience of Asia and who might not otherwise have an opportunity to come to know Asia. CMU Deadlines in October. Contact our Campus Liaison, Dr. Richelle Bernazzoli (rbernazz@andrew.cmu.edu), if interested.
- Pacific Forum – Center for Strategic & International Studies \(CSIS\) has five fellowship programs for summer and post-graduation which each offer both resident and non-resident programs offering promising scholars and young professionals the opportunity to serve as researchers with Pacific Forum and develop hands-on expertise on Indo-Pacific policy issues. Resident fellows are based in Hawaii to conduct research under the mentorship of Pacific Forum staff and to help with ongoing projects and programs. Non-resident fellows conduct research from their home country under the mentorship of Pacific Forum staff and affiliates. Both resident and non-resident fellows are inducted into Pacific Forum’s flagship next-generation initiative, the Young Leaders Program, and have the opportunity to attend Pacific Forum conferences in Hawaii and the region. Deadlines in October.
- The Payne International Development Graduate Fellowship Program is for young people who are interested in pursuing careers in the Foreign Service of the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID). The Payne Fellowship, which provides up to $90,000 in benefits over two years for graduate school, internships, and professional development activities, provides a unique pathway to the USAID Foreign Service. Application deadlines in January. US Citizens only.
- The Pickering Graduate Fellowship offers financial support through graduate school. The goal of the Fellowship Program is to attract outstanding students who enroll in two-year master’s degree programs in public policy, international affairs, public administration, or academic fields such as business, economics, political science, sociology, or foreign languages, who represent all ethnic, racial and social backgrounds and who have an interest in pursuing a Foreign Service career in the U.S. Department of State. Application deadlines in January. US Citizens Only.
- Rangel International Affairs Fellowship aims to attract and prepare outstanding young people for careers in the Foreign Service. Each year, the Rangel Program selects 20 fellows (from about 200 applicants) and helps support them through two years of graduate study, internships and professional development activities, and entry into the Foreign Service. Application deadlines in January. US Citizens Only.

- The Samuel Huntington Public Service Award provides a $10,000 stipend for a graduating college senior to pursue one year of public service anywhere in the world. The award allows recipients to engage in a meaningful public service activity for one year before proceeding on to graduate school or a career. Application deadlines in January.
- The Herbert Scoville Jr. Peace Fellowship Program invites college graduates (and those who will have graduated by the start of the program) to apply for full-time, six-to-nine month fellowships in Washington, DC. Outstanding individuals will be selected to work with nonprofit, public-interest organizations addressing peace and security issues. Application deadlines in October.
- The Princeton in Latin America/ Asia/ Africa Program: Partners with NGOs and multilateral organizations and places highly qualified recent college graduates in year-long service fellowships with nonprofit, public service, humanitarian, and government organizations.
- White House Fellows Program individuals typically spend a year working as a full-time, paid Fellow to senior White House Staff, Cabinet Secretaries and other top-ranking government officials. Applications open in November. US Citizens Only.