Alumni

Data Source:

The data used for the alumni section of this book are from the university's alumni database as of July 1, 2015.

Other Sources:

Carnegie Mellon Alumni Association Data: Office of Alumni Relations and Annual Giving

Definitions:

Alumni: Defined as (a) all persons who have been admitted to any school or college of Carnegie Institute of Technology or Carnegie Mellon University, who have completed at least one semester of classes in a degree program, and who have left the University in good standing and (b) all persons who have received an Honorary Degree from the University.

Active: Defined as all alumni who maintain a current postal or e-mail address

E-mail Only: Indicates that the only contact information available is e-mail address

Alumni Interest Group: Any group of Carnegie Mellon alumni who share a common interest or bond and who desire to affiliate with each other as a subgroup of the Carnegie Mellon Alumni Association. Alumni Interest Groups are formed around at least one of the following criteria:

Former membership in an officially recognized student organization

A shared personal characteristic (such as ethnicity, cultural background, or religion)

A shared postgraduate professional experience (such as entrepreneurs, lawyers, doctors, etc.)

Chapter: Historically, "clan" was chosen to describe the regional alumni groups of the Carnegie Mellon Alumni Association, reflecting the Scottish heritage of Andrew Carnegie. In recent years, "chapter" is used with more frequency as new groups are formed. For ease of reference, "chapter" refers to both clans and chapters.

Honorary Alumni: For degree level, honorary alumni are counted within the "Non-Grad/Certificate" category; for degree college and preferred degree level, honorary alumni are within the "Other/Honorary" category

Office of Alumni Relations and Annual Giving

Mission: Cultivating a culture of engagement and philanthropy within Carnegie Mellon University's global community.

Strategic Objectives

1) Engagement

Increase alumni and student involvement with the university and each other annually.

2) Philanthropy

Increase overall annual giving participation and total dollars raised from all constituents.

3) Professional Development and Lifelong Learning

Develop, initiate and expand professional and educational engagement opportunities for alumni and students.

4) Collaboration

Work in partnership with colleagues across campus to achieve departmental, divisional and university goals.

Annual Giving

In addition to engaging members of the CMU global community as volunteers, event participants, and CMU ambassadors, the Office of Alumni Relations and Annual Giving strives to increase annual financial support from our alumni, students, parents, faculty, staff and friends. We seek both unrestricted gifts to the Carnegie Mellon Fund (which support the university's most pressing needs, as determined by the administration) and restricted gifts to a variety of campus departments and programs.

Alumni Association Board (AAB)

Twenty-three Voting Members:

Twenty Directors – five elected each year for non-renewable four-year terms

Three Alumni Officers serving two-year terms each – President, Immediate Past President, and President-Elect

One Staff Officer – Associate VP of Alumni Relations and Annual Giving; serves as Secretary to the AAB

Two to three Ex-officio Members – VP for University Advancement, a student representative from the Highland Ambassadors, and a rotating representative from the Andrew Carnegie Society Executive Board

Global Networks

The Carnegie Mellon Global Network is made up of alumni, students, and parents interested in building and maintaining connections with each other and the university. The Global Network is composed of Regional Networks where CMU enthusiasts are meeting around the globe to network, learn, and socialize; and Interest Networks where communities are built around personal characteristics, professional interests, and student organization involvement.

Awards and Recognition

The Carnegie Mellon Alumni Association honors exceptional Carnegie Mellon alumni, students and faculty for their contributions to the university, their communities, and their professions.

Online Services

Carnegie Mellon provides online services for alumni and students at alumni.cmu.edu, including an online directory, email forwarding, event calendars and registration, online giving, social media presence, and regional and alumni interest networks web pages.

Reunions

The 25th reunion will be celebrated on campus in conjunction with Spring Carnival in 2016, and the 50th reunion will be celebrated in conjunction with Commencement Weekend. In addition to the on-campus celebrations, regional and virtual opportunities will be created to engage as many classmates as possible in these anniversaries. The Office of Alumni Relations and Annual Giving also plans events and activities around other significant anniversaries tied to departments, organizations, or

Student Programs

The Office of Alumni Relations and Annual Giving works throughout the academic year to connect current students with alumni, increase awareness of the lifelong connection to CMU, and educate about the importance of philanthropy. Volunteer and engagement programs include: Highland Ambassadors, Love a Donor Week, Proud to be Plaid Committee, and various events throughout the year from orientation through commencement weekend.
