

Mary Ann Ulishney

Mary Ann is recently retired from a 26-year career at Wells Fargo Private Bank in wealth management. Prior to joining Wells Fargo, Ms. Ulishney was engaged in the private practice of law, focusing on estate planning and real estate.

Ms. Ulishney earned her Bachelor of Science, Mathematics and English, from Carnegie Mellon University. She received her Juris Doctorate at Mitchell Hamline School of Law.

She is a member of numerous professional organizations and has served in volunteer leadership positions, including with the Junior League of Minneapolis, the Duluth Superior Symphony Orchestra, and St. Stephen's [Episcopal Church] Fund.

Her hobbies include travel, cooking, and playing golf.