Required Financial Support: Prior to issuing a DS-2019 Certificate of Eligibility, immigration regulations require proof of sufficient financial support for the entire duration of the visit. For a student intern to the Pittsburgh campus, a minimum of $33,528/year ($2,794/month) is required. For a student intern to the Silicon Valley campus, a minimum of $38,892/year ($3,241/month) is required. If applicable, include an additional $16,284/year ($1,357/month) for an accompanying spouse and $14,592/year ($1,216/month) for each accompanying child.

If receiving CMU department support, attach a copy of the offer/invitation letter. For home institution, employer or home government support, submit letters on official letterhead clearly detailing the time period to be covered and the total amount of support offered. If using personal funds, submit bank statements that meet the criteria below. If receiving financial support from a family member, provide a letter signed by the family member and bank statements.

NOTE: Supporting financial documents must: 1) be in English, 2) be dated less than 6 months from date of submission, and 3) clearly state the name of the account holder and the amount of funding available in U.S. dollar equivalent. (Foreign currency will be converted upon review of the forms if necessary).

(Although we will be accepting financial documentation for student interns via email, the student is still expected to maintain original financial documentation and OIE reserves the right to request that the student mail such documentation if necessary.)
