

Hello, Students & Scholars!

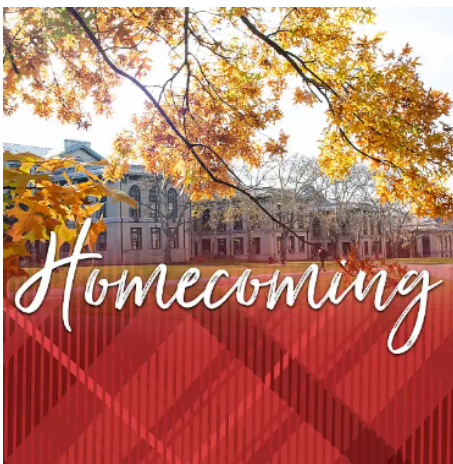

November in Pittsburgh reminds us that winter is on its way! Or maybe tomorrow will be bright, sunny and feel like spring. Or give it an hour, and it could feel like summer. Who knows! What we do know is that a lot is going on in the city and across campus this week. We hope you enjoy this issue of the OIE "Friday Greetings" newsletter.

OIE & CMU News & Events

Homecoming Weekend

Nov. 1 and 2

Calling all Tartans! Homecoming has something for everyone to enjoy, including family-friendly activities, the annual Alumni Awards, the Homecoming football game and Spirit Day. Kick-off the weekend on Friday with a Mini Carnival and cheer on our Tartans on Saturday as they take on the Westminster Titans.

Daylight Savings Time Ends

Sunday, Nov. 3

Daylight savings time is ending soon. On the first Sunday in November, we “fall back” by changing our clocks back one hour. Most clocks will automatically reset, but be sure to double-check yours.

Our Pittsburgh Picks

& Juliet

Now through Nov. 3

& Juliet flips the script on the greatest love story ever told, asking: what would happen next if Juliet didn't end it all over Romeo? Get whisked away on a fabulous journey as she ditches her famous ending for a fresh beginning and a second chance at life and love. Catch this show at the Benedum Center Theater this month!

Great Expectations

Now through Nov. 10

This imaginative adaptation brings Charles Dickens’ classic rags-to-riches tale to vibrant new life. For Pip, a young orphan in 19th century England, life is about to change. In a world ruled by money and social class, will he find his fortune? Follow the extraordinary adventures of Pip, as he seeks to fulfill his romantic destiny. You can see this fantastic adaptation this month at the New Hazlett Theater.
