

FRIDAY GREETINGS

FROM OIE

Hello, Students & Scholars!

Happy Homecoming! It's officially one of the best weekends of the year, and there is so much to look forward to. From Buggy rolls and a mini Carnival, to lectures and exhibits, there's something for everyone this weekend (and we can't forget the big game!). Plus, the city has some pretty cool events happening, too! We hope you enjoy this issue of the OIE "Friday Greetings" newsletter.

OIE & CMU News & Events

Homecoming Weekend

Now to Nov. 9

Calling all Tartans! Homecoming has something for everyone to enjoy, including family-friendly activities, the annual Alumni Awards, Diwali celebrations, the Homecoming football game and so much more! Kick off the weekend with a Mini Carnival and some awesome Buggy rolls, and cheer on our Tartans as they take on Franklin Marshall.

Film Screening: “In Exile”

Nov. 7 @ 7 p.m.

Lights, camera, action! Check out the premiere of the documentary “In Exile” by CMU’s Ralph Vituccio and Reem Alghazzi. This deeply moving documentary brings to life the powerful stories of artists, writers, musicians and political activists forced to flee their homelands. More than a film, “In Exile” is a call to empathy.

Our Pittsburgh Picks

ENRON

Now to Nov. 23

Power. Deceit. Money. ENRON isn’t just a play, it’s a high-octane odyssey! Staged high above the city in the retro-cool Oxford Centre, this production offers a wild ride with characters from corporate infamy. Playwright Lucy Prebble, a three-time Emmy Award-winner for Succession, brings to life this biting satire of suits and spreadsheets.

Mr. Edgar A. Poe Presents: Tales for Horror, Mystery, and Imagination

Now through Nov. 16

Spooky season isn't over yet! Mustachioed, piercing eyes and dressed in black, Edgar Allen Poe takes centre stage in this production. The four tales featured in this performance become mirrors reflecting back on the poet, and enter the world of his creations!
