

FRIDAY GREETINGS

FROM OIE

Hello, Students & Scholars!

Hello Tartans! We hope you're settling into the semester, finding your work-life balance and making connections on campus. If you're finding it challenging to adjust, be sure to check out our International Neighbors Program, which can help you to make local connections and experience life off-campus. This week is full of opportunities to hear live music, see artistry in action and eat great food. We hope you enjoy this issue of the OIE "Friday Greetings" newsletter!
