

FRIDAY GREETINGS

FROM OIE

Hello, Students & Scholars!

Let it snow, let it snow, the cold never bothered us anyway! But actually, we wouldn't mind if spring were a little bit closer. Whether you want to stay inside where it's warm or venture out into the Pittsburgh tundra, we've found some great events happening on campus and in the city. We hope you enjoy this issue of the OIE Friday Greetings newsletter!

OIE & CMU News & Events

Hacking4Humanity

Now - Feb. 7

Hacking4Humanity (H4H) is an annual event that challenges college students from across the 'Burgh to create innovative technology and policy solutions that mitigate online hate and create safe communities. Register as an individual or group and help create a positive impact on the world!

Francis Menotti in Sisyphus & Siri

Now - Feb. 2

Darkly funny and mind-boggling, check out this "play swallowed by a magic show." Sisyphus and Siri follows the whimsical journey of magician and creator Francis Menotti as he comically and mysteriously comes to terms with his inevitable demise while presenting his (supposedly) final performance.
