

FRIDAY GREETINGS

FROM OIE

Hello, Students & Scholars!

Spring has sprung, and we're ready for sunshine! And sure, it might still be cold, but warm weather is right around the corner. Celebrate the start of the season with some of the exciting events happening around campus and in town this week. We hope you enjoy this issue of the OIE Friday Greetings newsletter!

OIE & CMU News & Events

Student Sexual Misconduct & Awareness Survey

Carnegie Mellon University's Student Sexual Misconduct and Awareness Survey is designed to gather comprehensive and accurate student data on the campus climate regarding sexual misconduct, awareness and prevention. Open to all undergraduate and graduate students, the survey's results will guide decisions about policies, programs and resources that address the needs and challenges of our community. Student input is extremely valuable! Students who complete the survey by April 2 can choose to enter into a lottery to win more than 80 prizes. The survey is anonymous and administered by Rankin Climate in partnership with the Office for Institutional Equity and Title IX and the Office of Institutional Research and Analysis.
