

FRIDAY GREETINGS

FROM OIE

Hello, Students & Scholars!

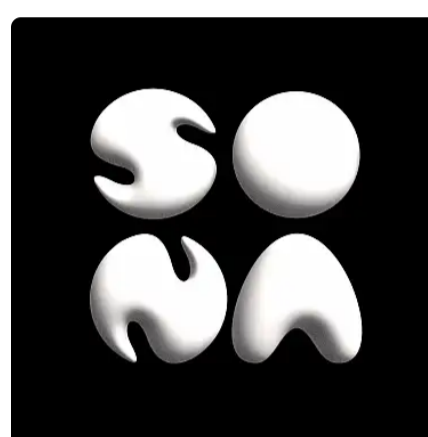

Happy April! We hope that you stayed on your toes and managed to avoid falling too hard for any April fool's shenanigans. While the fooling might be over, the fun certainly rolls on with exciting events on campus and all around Pittsburgh. We hope you enjoy this edition of the OIE Friday Greetings newsletter!

OIE & CMU News & Events

SONA Immersive Storytelling Festival

Now through April 4

Experience the works of filmmakers, artists and creators like never before in XR, 360° video and other forms of interactive media. This free event right on our campus will allow you a glimpse at the cutting edge intersection of artistic and technological innovation.

Learn More

Our Pittsburgh Picks

Vintage Pittsburgh

April 4 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

If you love leafing through racks of clothes in search of your next favorite piece, Vintage Pittsburgh is the event for you. Dozens of makers and vendors will be at the Heinz History Center selling unique clothing, accessories, vinyl, home décor and more!

Learn More

Song Shop with Pittsburgh Opera

April 4 @ 12 p.m.

This free, informal concert features resident artists of Pittsburgh Opera performing for the public. If you love the opera, but regularly attending doesn't quite fit in your budget, this is a perfect way to get your operatic fix.

Learn More

From Slavery to Freedom Film Series: "Freedom House Ambulance: The First Responders"

April 7 @ 6 p.m.

Did you know that America's very first emergency medical service was formed in Pittsburgh's Hill District and comprised entirely of black men and women? This documentary, screening at the Heinz History Center, explores the rise and fall of the Freedom House Ambulance service, and its lasting legacy in U.S. healthcare.

Learn More

Have an announcement to share?

If you have an event or announcement that you wish to submit for inclusion in OIE's Friday Greetings newsletter, please submit it via our Event Submission Form by Wednesday at 5 p.m. Eastern Time for inclusion in the following Friday's newsletter.

CMU's Office of International Education distributed this email. You are receiving it because of your status as an international student or scholar.