Dear New Students,

We are delighted to welcome you to Carnegie Mellon University! International Student Orientation will address the unique needs of new international students. University-Wide Student Orientations will take place August 17-20 for all new Graduate Students, and for Undergraduate Students on August 23. University-Wide Student Orientations will introduce you to resources, organizations and individuals who will be a part of your experience while you are a student at CMU in Pittsburgh. We look forward to you becoming an active member of campus and hope that you will take advantage of the academic and personal opportunities that await you!

Sincerely, The Office of International Education (OIE)

OIE International Student Orientation Schedule:
♦ Welcome & Introductions
♦ Adjusting To Life In The US
♦ Checklist of “Next Steps”
♦ Immigration Presentation
♦ Mandatory Immigration Check-In

Orientation is a great opportunity to meet your fellow classmates. Take advantage of the time you spend at orientation and introduce yourself to the people sitting around you!

Prior to attending orientation, you MUST complete the following:
♦ “Newly Admitted Student Arrival E-Form” from your MyOIE Portal (http://bit.ly/MyOIECMU); upload attachments and submit the form.

ALSO, bring the following documents to the OIE International Student Orientation and Check-In:
♦ Original I-20/DS-2019
♦ Passport with visa sticker
♦ I-94 record (either printed copy or screen shot on your phone). Note: This document can only be printed after entry to the US.

F-1/J-1 students must attend the Immigration Presentation and complete the Immigration Check-in to maintain legal status.
