Carnegie Mellon University

Carnegie Mellon University: Mellon College of Science: Physics
Assistant Professor (Theoretical Particle Physics)

Location: Pittsburgh, PA

Closes: Dec 30, 2017 at 11:59 PM Eastern Time
(GMT-4 hours)

The Department of Physics at Carnegie Mellon University expects to fill a tenure-track or tenured faculty position in theoretical high-energy physics, with broad interests in applications of quantum field theory. Preference will be given to candidates who could interact with cosmologists, medium energy, and condensed matter physicists. The successful candidate will be expected to maintain an active research program and to teach at both the undergraduate and graduate levels.

QUALIFICATIONS

A Ph.D. and/or Post-doctoral experience in theoretical particle physics is required.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Candidates should submit a curriculum vitae, publication list, a brief statement of research plans and teaching plans, and a cover letter; and arrange for three letters of recommendation to be uploaded.

This institution is using Interfolio's ByCommittee to conduct this search. Applicants to this position receive a free Dossier account and can send all application materials, including confidential letters of recommendation, free of charge.
