This safety alert involves an incident that occurred off campus at a location in close proximity to a facility used by our School of Drama at 201 North Braddock Ave. in the Point Breeze section of Pittsburgh.

Today at approximately 1:07 p.m., Pittsburgh Police received several calls about shots being fired from two vehicles near the intersection of Penn and South Braddock avenues.

One vehicle was described as a dark colored SUV and the other as a red Dodge Charger or Challenger. No good description of the shooters has been provided. At least one motorist was injured by broken glass during the gunfire. There appears to be no threat to the public at this time, but community members are advised to avoid this area during the Pittsburgh Police investigation.

This incident is being investigated by the Pittsburgh Bureau of Police.

General Safety and Prevention Tips:

- Stay alert to your surroundings at all times.
- Stay close to friends and do not interact with strangers.
- Do not approach suspicious persons or vehicles.
- Report any suspicious activity on campus to CMU Police at 412-268-2323, or off campus to the Pittsburgh Police at 911 as soon as possible.

Chief Tom Ogden
Carnegie Mellon University Police Department