

SAFETY ALERT

2019-004

At 5:50 p.m. today, Tuesday, July 16, Pittsburgh police officers on patrol in Schenley Park observed an older model gold Buick sedan that was allegedly involved in two prior indecent exposure incidents on June 19. The automobile's Pennsylvania license plate number is JMN-1172. One of the prior incidents involving the vehicle occurred in Pittsburgh and the other occurred in White Oak Borough, a Pittsburgh suburb.

Today, the Pittsburgh police officers attempted to stop the vehicle and a brief chase ensued very near to our campus on Schenley Drive. The chase was terminated in Oakland, near Phipps Conservatory and Botanical Gardens due to safety concerns. The driver of the vehicle was described as a male, approximately 50-60 years of age with gray hair, mustache and eyeglasses.

In the event you see this gold Buick sedan with Pennsylvania license plate number JMN-1172, please stay away from the vehicle and call University Police at 412-268-2323 or Pittsburgh Police at 9-1-1.

General Safety and Prevention Tips:

- Always remain alert and be aware of your surroundings.
- Walk with friends, do not approach or interact with strangers.
- Do not approach suspicious vehicles.
- Use the CMU Shuttle & Escort system whenever possible.

Sincerely,

Lt. Joseph Meyers
Carnegie Mellon University Police