

SAFETY ALERT

This safety alert is to inform the Carnegie Mellon community about a robbery that occurred near campus at 8:15 p.m., Monday, June 22, 2020. The victim is not affiliated with CMU.

The victim reported to CMU Police and Pittsburgh Police that she was walking alone in the 100 block of N. Craig Street along the driveway between the University Square Apartments and the Plaza Park Condominiums. The victim was talking on her phone when she was approached from behind by two male suspects. The first suspect grabbed the victim's phone and ran toward N. Craig Street by the Sunoco convenience store. The second suspect walked away slowly in the same direction while taunting the victim.

GENERAL SAFETY AND PREVENTION TIPS

- Stay alert to your surroundings at all times.
- Do not fight with an assailant who attempts to steal your belongings.
- Stay close to friends and do not interact with strangers.
- Do not approach suspicious persons or vehicles.
- Report any suspicious activity on campus to CMU Police at 412-268-2323, or off campus to the Pittsburgh Police at 911 as soon as possible.

Chief Tom Ogden

Carnegie Mellon University

The purpose of CMU Crime and Safety Alerts is to keep the campus community safe by notifying community members of the date, time, location and description of incidents that occur on or near campus that could directly impact members of the campus community. Alerts also share safety and prevention tips that may aid in the prevention of similar crimes. Crime and safety alerts will not include the names of victims or identifying information of suspects, unless approved by the Chief of Police in consultation with the Chief of Staff and Vice President for Strategic Initiatives. For more information, visit cmu.edu/police.