

2016-2017 Verification Worksheet Dependent Students

Your application was selected for review in a process called "Federal Verification." In this process, Carnegie Mellon is comparing information from your FAFSA to information contained in your CSS PROFILE and copies of your and your parent(s)' 2015 IRS Tax Return Transcripts, and with W-2 forms or other financial documents. All of the information that you submitted in the application process must be reviewed for accuracy and free from any conflicting documentation or inconsistencies before finalizing your financial aid eligibility. If there are differences between your application information and your financial documents, we will submit the required changes on your behalf.

Complete the sections of this form that are applicable to your own family situation. All students should complete Section I: STUDENT/FAMILY INFORMATION. Please pay careful attention to the instructions provided in this section.

In Section II: TAX AND INCOME INFORMATION, you and your parent(s) should complete the fields relating to the sources of untaxed income received as defined on the FAFSA. If you or your parent(s) are not required to file a Federal Income Tax Return, complete the Sources of Income Received.

In Section III: PARENT(S)' OTHER INFORMATION TO BE VERIFIED, your parent(s) should complete this section if someone in the household received food stamps or if a parent in the household paid child support.

Once this form is complete, submit it to the Student Financial Aid Office as soon as possible, so that finalization of your financial aid won't be delayed. Remember that you and at least one parent must sign this form.
