Federal Verification Policy, revised January 9, 2019

Carnegie Mellon University Federal Title IV Verification Policy and Procedural Statement

Policy Reason

The U. S. Department of Education requires that Federal Title IV applicants provide documentation to verify the accuracy of the information submitted on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) each year. Federal regulations include verification as part of the Federal Student Aid (FSA) program requirements, and it is required for applicants for most FSA programs with the exception of students receiving only a parent or graduate PLUS loan or an unsubsidized Stafford loan. Each university is required to have policies for verifying the reported information. Federal regulations can be found at:

- Federal Student Aid Handbook
- Application & Verification Guide
- Chapter 4: Verification, Updates, and Corrections
- 34 CFR 668.51-61

Policy and Procedural Statement

Federal verification guidelines require that applicants are selected for verification by the Central Processing System (CPS) or by the school. At Carnegie Mellon, federal verification is performed on all applicants selected by the CPS and any application that the university has reason to believe is incorrect or has conflicting documentation.

Under certain circumstances a CPS selected application may be excluded from some or all of the federal verification requirements due to the following unusual circumstances including: death of the student, not an aid recipient, applicant is eligible to receive only unsubsidized student financial assistance, applicant verified by another school or post enrollment (the student was selected for verification after ceasing to be enrolled). With the exception of the death of the student, however, none of these exemptions excuse the university from the requirement to resolve conflicting information.

Federal verification must typically be completed prior to the end of the academic year or before the student ceases enrollment, whichever occurs first. Students, who fail to comply with verification requirements, including submitting documentation within required timelines, will not have Federal Title IV funds disbursed and may have Federal Title IV funds cancelled. Carnegie Mellon considers the student to be the responsible party for providing information and completing the verification process.

Carnegie Mellon identifies the students selected for verification during the financial aid application process by viewing the FAFSA output document called the Institutional Student Information Record (ISIR). A review of the student’s financial aid application occurs after ISIR data is received and data entry of required information is completed. The ISIR will provide information about the student and family including a calculated Expected Family Contribution (EFC), document codes identifying specific information about the applicant data submitted, and written comments. The written messages provide additional information for the applicant to follow. The federal verification message for the student reads: “Your FAFSA has been selected for a review process called verification. Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents from you and your parent(s).” The verification activity will initially compare applicant data for accuracy and completeness and continue to resolve conflicting information. In this process Carnegie Mellon requires verification of the following items:

For all applicants:
- Household size
- Number in college

For non-tax filers:
- Income earned from work

For tax filers:
- Adjusted Gross Income (AGI)
- U.S. income tax paid
- Income earned from work
- Education tax credits (American Opportunity Tax Credit and Lifetime Learning Tax Credit)
- Other untaxed income reported on tax return, for example: untaxed portions of Individual Retirement Account (IRA) distributions, untaxed portions of pensions, IRA deductions and payments, tax-exempt interest income

To complete the verification process acceptable documentation may include IRS Tax Transcripts, IRS Tax Forms (1040, 1040A, 1040E, and requested tax schedules), W-2’s and the CSS/Financial Aid PROFILE. To resolve discrepancies in reported information students may be required to submit additional documentation.

Verification results that require changes to the applicant information and subsequent changes to the student’s financial aid package will be made prior to final disbursement of federal funds. For all students eligible for subsidized Title IV aid the university will make appropriate changes to the student information electronically through the Department of Education’s CPS to ensure each student has a correct valid ISIR. The student will be notified of this adjustment through a revised financial aid award letter.

If the verification results do not justify aid already disbursed, the student is responsible for repaying all aid for which they are not eligible. Failure to meet the repayment obligation will result in the student being referred by Carnegie Mellon to the U.S. Department of Education.

Verification results that reveal possible fraud or criminal misconduct in connection with the financial aid application or verification processes will result in the matter being referred by Carnegie Mellon to the Office of the Inspector General of the U.S. Department of Education for investigation.

In the event that individual circumstances and unusual situations are not addressed or defined through standard verification procedures, additional review is necessary. These cases must be sufficiently documented and may be processed in accordance with regulations as defined in Professional Judgment and Dependency Overrides Statute: HEA Sec.479A(a)(7) and Sec. 480 (d)(7).
Federal Title IV Funds Disbursements

Carnegie Mellon completes federal verification for selected applicants as a requirement of completing a student’s financial aid application. Federal Title IV funds will not be disbursed until federal verification is completed. In some instances the institution can make an interim disbursement of funds if it has no reason to believe that the application information is inaccurate. If the institution makes an interim disbursement, the verification process must be completed prior to the disbursement of any additional funds. In all instances the institution is liable for an interim disbursement if verification identifies an overpayment or the student fails to complete verification.
