Feminists Engaged in Multicultural Matters and Education (FEMME)

The purpose of F.E.M.M.E. (Feminists Engaged in Multicultural Matters and Education), serving Carnegie Mellon University, is to educate campus community on societal marginalization using an intersectional feminist lens to provide focus. The organization accomplishes its mission by providing educational programming, events, discussions, and entertainment related to a variety of intersectional issues, as well as fostering a safe space for all community members.
