THE FAIR

Interested in joining an organization's list or their social media? Below are organization descriptions, list signup links, and their social media. Find even more info on The Bridge.

Alpha Chi Omega

The Kappa Nu chapter, founded at Carnegie Mellon University in 2006, exemplifies these standards, with sisters involved in an abundance of organizations across campus and the Pittsburgh community. Wherever you look, you are sure to find an Alpha Chi, whether it is mentoring children in Pittsburgh, playing a varsity sport, or teaching students in the classroom as a TA. Our sisters don't just participate in these activities— they will help lead them, backed up by the support of their sisters. If one sister is performing her senior voice recital, there will definitely be a crowd of sisters in the audience cheering her on.

Alpha Epsilon Pi

Alpha Epsilon Pi was founded to provide opportunities for the Jewish college man seeking the best possible college and fraternity experience. We have maintained the integrity of our purpose by strengthening our ties to the Jewish community and serving as a link between high school and career. Throughout our history, the fraternity setting has served as a "learning laboratory", a testing ground for young men who later become leaders in business, education, government, religion, and science. A goal of our fraternity is to help each student to develop character, to learn responsibility, and to develop a proper set of values through living together in brotherhood. Alpha Epsilon Pi prepares young men for their role in life as responsible citizens.

Alpha Phi

Since 1872, Alpha Phi has promoted sisterhood, scholarship, leadership, loyalty, personal development, and service. Through a combination of sisterhood and service events, socials, academics, and chapter programming, our sisters aim to obtain the most out of their college experience. Our sisters stand as not only some of the most influential leaders on campus, but within the Greek community as a whole. Alpha Phi has truly given us more than we could have imagined: a place to call home, endless support, and truly unforgettable experiences. I joined Alpha Phi because I saw an organization supported by selfless, passionate, inspiring women—the type of woman I aim to be. Today, I am honored to have become one of those women, shaped by my experiences in the chapter. Through Alpha Phi, I gained a family and an international network of sisters that will remain a presence well beyond my college experience. I invite you to follow us on social media and discover why Alpha Phi has become our home away from home.

Alpha Tau Omega

In most experiences in life, everything before you has already been defined. As a colony, Alpha Tau Omega is still working to define itself. That's why we care so much about the quality of our members. As a member of ATO, not only will you be part of the experience, you will help to define it and create experiences for generations to come. We're seeking individuals who are ready to step up to the plate and help to create something great. Imagine being part of a brotherhood of highly motivated and intelligent men who will encourage you when you need it, carry you when times are tough, and build you up to unleash your potential. "As iron sharpens iron," ATO challenges you to be better than you were yesterday. Our mission is to recognize and foster the merits of true leaders and help them to be the greatest they can be. As a member of ATO, you will gain experiences and create bonds that will allow you to maximize your Carnegie Mellon experience and become your greatest self.

Kappa Sigma

The Delta-Alpha chapter of Kappa Sigma has a rich history on the Carnegie Mellon campus dating back to our founding in 1921. Throughout our 90 years at CMU, Kappa Sigma has continually impacted campus through the Big 3 (Booth, Buggy, Greek Sing), the social events we provide to the community, and the strong leaders our house produces that work across campus.

Panhellenic Council

Carnegie Mellon University has six Panhellenic sororities on campus: Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Phi, Delta Delta Delta, Delta Gamma, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Kappa Kappa Gamma. All six sororities are members of the National Panhellenic Conference (NPC) and strive for the four pillars of the community: sisterhood, service, scholarship, and leadership. Acting in cooperation with NPC, the Panhellenic Council, composed of current students from all six chapters, serves as the governing body for Carnegie Mellon's Panhellenic community. Among many other functions, the Panhellenic Executive Board organizes initiatives for all chapters such as recruitment, All Greek community events, educational programs, and other events that promote our community values.

Sigma Nu

Since our founding on January 1, 1869, at the Virginia Military Institute in Lexington, Va., Sigma Nu Fraternity has been a pioneer in the fraternal world. Originally founded and known to this day as The Legion of Honor, Sigma Nu is the only social fraternity in existence founded in firm opposition to hazing and based on the principle of Honor. Sigma Nu is the first general college fraternity to offer risk reduction policies and a comprehensive membership education program, remaining committed to both our mission and vision for over 140 years.
