Agape Christian Ministry

Are you looking for a Christian community? Just want to know more about God? We cultivate a rhythm of worship, prayer, biblical living and community into our daily life. During these times, God draws us together into genuine relationships with one another. Our campus ministry for undergraduate and graduate students meets weekly.

Asian Christian Fellowship

ACF is a tight-knit, small-group based fellowship that spans Carnegie Mellon and the University of Pittsburgh. Whether you're Asian, Christian, neither, or both, we invite you to come seek God and to reflect on your life. Asian Christian Fellowship seeks to carry out the Great Commission of our Lord Jesus Christ to make disciples of all nations by proclaiming the gospel, providing fellowship for edification, nurturing Christians in spiritual growth, and building up Christian leaders.

Catholic Newman Club

The Carnegie Mellon University Catholic Newman Club is a social, religious, and service organization for students who are practicing Catholics, and also those who are otherwise interested in Catholicism. We host events and disseminate information in order to promote the practice of the Catholic faith in student life, and provide opportunities for additional growth and exploration of the faith. We work with the Ryan Catholic Newman Center (run by the Pittsburgh Oratory), campus missionaries through the Fellowship of Catholic University Students (FOCUS), and the University of Pittsburgh's Newman Club to host and promote both on campus and cross-campus social, religious, and service events.

Chinmaya Yuva Kendra (CHYK)

We are the young adult branch of Chinmaya Mission that studies Vedantic philosophy, the foundation of Hindu religion and culture. We hold weekly discussions as well as campus-wide events through which we learn about Vedanta – the Hindu philosophy of Oneness – and discuss its practical applications to our lives.

Christians on Campus

Christians on Campus (CoC) is a student group comprising pursuers of genuine Christian belief from various backgrounds. We love the Lord Jesus and endeavor to give Him the first place in all things (Col. 1:18). It is vital to have Christian companions throughout our college years to build, preserve, and strengthen our faith. With the global pandemic, we need to gather together more than ever before to enjoy God, receive His mercy and find grace for timely help (Heb. 4:16)!

CMU OM

OM is an organization that celebrates Indian culture, traditions, festivities, and spirituality. In recognizing the diverse traditions of India, OM provides a unified platform for students, faculty, and all other members of the Carnegie Mellon community to come together and celebrate India's eclectic culture. Throughout the year, we hold some of the largest on campus events such as Diwali Garba, Lohri, and Holi. We also celebrate Gandhi Jayanti, conduct several trips to the Gurudwara, SV Temple, and Hindu-Jain Temples, and hold Aartis for Diwali, Holi, and at the end of each semester. In providing an avenue for multiple cultures (North, East, South, West India) and religious faiths (Hindus, Jains, Sikhs, among many others), OM aims to help the Carnegie Mellon Community recognize and celebrate Indian culture, and through this recognition we hope to contribute to charity for underprivileged children.

CRU

As the largest faith-based organization globally, the purpose of Cru is to build movements of people who are transformed by Jesus Christ. The student-led movement seeks to introduce students to Jesus Christ, help them to grow in their faith, encourage them to live life passionately under the lordship of Christ, and inspire commitment to advancing the purposes of God in the world. Cru offers weekly Bible studies on campus, weekly city-wide meetings along with Pitt and Duquesne students, winter and spring conferences, retreats, and summer missions for students who are seeking to get more involved in a Christian community and strengthen their faith. Cru also offers Discovery Bible Studies for students who do not consider themselves Christian, but desire to learn more about the Bible. Cru has five full-time advisors--all college graduates who know how to navigate the challenges and pressures of college life.

InterVarsity Christian Fellowship

InterVarsity is a community of people seeking to know and support each other in life's journey. As a Christian organization, we believe that God made us to find Him in community. We seek to be a place where people can grow spiritually, seeking God together and inviting others to know God, while also making a positive difference on our campus and in the world.

Pittsburgh Students Active in Lutheran Ministry (PSALM)

Formerly named "Lutheran Student Movement," the Lutheran campus ministry on campus is now named PSALM ("Pittsburgh Students Active in Lutheran Ministry")! Affiliated with the ELCA (Evangelical Lutheran Church in America), PSALM is committed to fostering a Christian community of acceptance, fellowship, and service in a way that celebrates God's creation, promotes the Word and Sacrament, and witnesses to the death and resurrection of Christ, through fellowship events including Sunday worship services, open discussions, mid-week meals, service projects, and more.

Redeemed Campus Fellowship

Our vision is to help interested individuals grow and become more knowledgeable about the Christian faith.

Tartan Athlete Fellowship

The Tartan Athlete Fellowship is a student group looking to explore the role athletics play in our Christian faith and how our Christian faith affects the way we compete, play and live. This group uses athletics to facilitate discussions, but not everything is focused on sports. We are a tight-knit group always looking to meet new friends; you don't have to be an athlete or a Christian to get involved. Come check us out if your interested in being apart of group exploring faith, college, sports and living.
