

EMERGING LEADERS

BENEFITS OF PARTNERING WITH US

Increased visibility of your organization among Carnegie Mellon University students.

Access to a group of 8-10 undergraduate students for the months of February and March, to collaboratively design and implement a civic engaged project of benefit to your organization.

Access to Nexus meeting space on CMU's campus and other campus resources for civic-engagement.

Exit interview to discover ongoing needs and possible points of connection at CMU.

EXPECTATIONS OF PARTNERS

January 15, 2025

One member to represent your organization at our Partner Fair on CMU's campus.

February-March, 2025

Approximately three meetings with your undergraduate impact team to collaboratively identify a concrete need within your organization, provide input on the students' plan, coordinate any resources or access, and provide feedback on the program.

(Optional) March 27, 2025:

After the conclusion of the project, join us at our ELebration to celebrate the work of the students.

ABOUT EMERGING LEADERS

A long-standing CMU tradition for first-year students, Emerging Leaders (EL) promotes the development of leadership skills through the lens of community engagement and social action.
