

Fall for Adventure

TREVOR GRANT (CIT '25), SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA

The leaves are changing, the air is turning crisp and new adventures abound this October! Now is the perfect time to finalize your adventure abroad for the winter or spring.

Check out some amazing research opportunities and highlights from Tartans abroad in this month's newsletter.

Wherever your studies take you, we'll see you there!

Summer Research Abroad

Unlock a world of discovery next summer by conducting research abroad! Immerse yourself in cutting-edge discovery while exploring vibrant cultures and gaining a global perspective.

Whether you're delving into environmental studies in Tokyo, sustainable engineering in Aachen or 3D bio-printing in Thuwal, you'll be at the forefront of innovation and creativity. Funding is available through select programs, and remember: many applications are due this semester.

Want to learn more? Discover research program opportunities and get application tips at our Information Session on Wednesday, Oct. 9, at 4:30 p.m. in GHC 4102, hosted in partnership with OURSD.

Postcards from Abroad

WITH LILY MADOJEMU (DC '24)

Recently Lily Madojemu, a Freeman-Asia Scholarship recipient, wrote about her experience studying abroad as a Black woman in Japan.

In Lily's own words, the experience was "a journey of gaining independence, confidence and autonomy." Check out her blog and consider Japan for your own study abroad experience!
