On Behalf OfDescription

Tartan Swing is a student dance organization that teaches students lindy hop, east coast swing, balboa, charleston, and blues dancing. It is the only hub in the greater Pittsburgh area to learn various swing styles. We welcome community members and students from other neighboring universities. The club hosts at least two live band events per year. Social dancing can be an intimidating endeavor. The club is highly accessible to all because it is free.

In the past few years, the club has expanded and grown. We are currently seeking more opportunities to advance the learning of our more advanced dancers through travel, hosting workshop events with out of town instructors, and providing subsidy to local dance exchanges (conferences).
