- Student Body Dining Committee meets at 4:30-5:30 in 318G on Thursdays
- Email sbdc@andrew with any concerns or comments
- That time is set in stone due to having to find a time Dean Murphy can make it
- Positive things about the new system
  - The reason for everything was healthier food as meals
  - People get more DineX
  - Get more for your block now
- Andy's is looking into an East Street Deli setup for wrap with a possible online system
- Are the first year students happy?
  - There are problems as it is new and we should fix system, not throw it away
  - What you want isn't always good for you
- Looking into immediate changes such as adding more meal choices, but as in terms of the entire system, this may change over semesters
- Part of Andy's is changing by offering pre-made as well as on the spot wraps
- DineX things are not cheaper, but the freshmen have more than before
- Trying to get meals better, but don't know what can be done about DineX
- No plan for some type of dining plan required for upperclassmen and will try to keep this from happening
- Freshmen meal plan change happening next week and after that you are locked

- Everyone complained about the meal system before, but there were no complaints about too much freedom
- Have a block system to lead you the first year then you are on your own
- Value meals were eliminated in that vendors thought they would be great for meals, but now they can only be bought by blocks, not by cash
- Upperclassmen can get meal plans if they want to
- Not able to buy single block, trying to encourage people onto meal plan
- Can't you have cash value for a block, since it is a different amount at every store
- Can't have an equivalent price for every value meal since the logistics would be a nightmare
- Wanted to take monetary amounts away from the block so that those on the meal plan get a greater value
- Could have 2 blocks in one period
- Want structure to the plan and not treat all of the upperclassmen to the meal plan

6:48pm Points of Discussion

- How can groups become recognized, for instance, Students for John Kerry
  - Contact Tom Sabram, F&R chair, whose committee meetings are on Mondays at 4:30
  - Dave Ruvolo can help in the Student Activities office
- Disturbing occurrences have happened on the quad regarding diversity and please let Adam Atkinson known if you hear of any
- We should make a rule to limit ex-officio questions
  - Instead, a senator can make a motion to end questioning
  - We should be mindful of the questions being asked, as not to repeat questions

- We should not limit because many issues will come up that we need to know
- Vito would say questions are always germane during discussion
- Need questions because we can't always make meetings that the speaker may be holding

6:52pm Motion to end all points of discussion (Ed Ryan)

Passes by acclamation

6:53pm Announcements

- Committee chairs have been working to set times for their committee meetings. Please be responsive as committee work is the heart and soul of Senate, and where most of our work gets done. Attendance at committee meetings are recorded, since participation is one of the biggest factors that lead to a good committee. If you are unable to attend a committee meeting, please make sure that you notify your committee chair beforehand, if at all possible. Thank you.
- The Senate retreat has been scheduled for September 18th from 11-2, in the Connan Room on the first floor of the University Center, right below Rangos Ballroom. Attendance is mandatory for Senators and will count against you. Members-at-large and the Executives are welcome to attend.
- The Fall Activities Fair was a quite a success, though it was a bit crowded inside Rangos Ballroom and Peter/Wright/McKenna. Thank you to Joe, Maureen, and Michelle for their help in setting up the fliers, the list, and Optimus Prime for Senate at the Fair.
- The Joint Funding Committee will be getting started soon and Senate is responsible for appointing 8 members to this important committee. If you are interested, please contact F&R Chair Tom Sabram, tsabram@stusen.org.
- College Democrats meeting today after meeting
- KGB underground tour – tomorrow (Friday, September 10) at 8 pm.
