UNDERGRADUATE DEGREE REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL ECONOMICS STUDENTS

All students earning a degree from the Undergraduate Economics Program will have completed the following requirements:

- General Education Requirements – These requirements can be found at www.hss.cmu.edu/gened and are listed on your primary degree’s academic audit. SHS and QSSS students will also need to fulfill their program requirements.

- Major Requirements – These requirements can be found in the University Course Catalog and are listed on your primary degree’s academic audit.

- Minor Requirements – These requirements can be found in the University Course Catalog and are listed on your minor degree’s academic audit.

- Minimum Unit Requirement – Students graduating with a primary degree awarded by the U/G Economics Program need a minimum of 360 units to graduate. Please check to make certain that the following requirements are considered in tabulating units applied to graduation:

  a. Repeated Courses. The units from repeated courses may not be double counted. For example, if you have taken a course (e.g., 73-230) and repeated it in a subsequent term, you only earn nine units for the course. Also, you may not receive unit credit in a course for which you earned AP, IB, or transfer credit.

  b. STUCO, and Physical Education Courses. A combined total of nine units from STUCO, and Physical Education courses may be applied to the 360 unit graduation requirement.

- Minimum Quality Point Average – Students must have a cumulative QPA of 2.00 in order to graduate from Carnegie Mellon University.

Please realize that diplomas may not be certified until a student completes all of the requirements listed above. Degrees not attained but listed in SIO will prevent certification.

Please check SIO to be certain that your academic and biographical information is correct. If any discrepancies exist, please contact Kathleen Conway (kconway@andrew.cmu.edu).

DIPLOMA AND TRANSCRIPT INFORMATION

Carnegie Mellon University's Enrollment Services is the official repository of academic achievement. Requests for diplomas and transcripts should be made directly to Enrollment Services (http://www.cmu.edu/hub).

Undergraduate degrees are conferred each semester (Fall, Spring, and Summer); yet, diplomas are distributed one time per year in the Undergraduate Economics Program Diploma Ceremony.

Carnegie Mellon diploma is a student's certificate of accomplishment. The student's official transcript is to be considered the official record for all degree(s), major(s), minor(s), and honors.

DIPLOMAS

The diploma is printed with the name the student approved within Graduation On-Line, along with the student's primary degree (i.e. Bachelor of Science in Economics).

Minors are no longer listed on the diploma, although they will continue to be indicated on the official transcript.

Diplomas are distributed to graduates during or immediately following the commencement ceremony. Certain circumstances will result in you receiving your diploma at a later date, and you will be informed of this well before the ceremony. If you are unable to attend the ceremony, diplomas will be available for pick-up or mail-out in the weeks following commencement. Diplomas are not available prior to the stated date of graduation.

The diploma is 14 x 17 inches and is marked with a gold and burgundy seal.

If you find the need to order another copy of your diploma, follow the instructions on Enrollment Services' Diploma webpage (https://www.cmu.edu/hub/registrar/graduation/diplomas/).

TRANSCRIPTS

An official Carnegie Mellon transcript is a student’s official documentation of course curriculum and degrees awarded. This includes courses and final grades for each semester for a student. It always includes both the undergraduate and graduate record (if applicable), as well as any transfer or advanced placement credit. All transcripts come in individually sealed envelopes, unless otherwise specified. Transcripts are printed on official paper with security features. For more information and to request an official transcript, follow the instructions on https://www.cmu.edu/hub/registrar/student-records/transcripts/index.html (https://www.cmu.edu/hub/registrar/student-records/transcripts/index.html).
RESOURCES FOR ALUMNI
Commencement need not mark the end of your relationship with the Undergraduate Economics Program nor your classmates. In fact, we hope you will stay in contact with us and take advantage of our many alumni resources (e.g., access to the career center, invitation to talks, invitation to local alumni networking events, and more).

E-MAIL
As Carnegie Mellon alumni, you have access to a lifetime email forwarding account via Alumni Relations. The alumni address is configured as "username@alumni.cmu.edu", reflecting your status as a Carnegie Mellon graduate.

Your Andrew email account will expire 90 days after graduation. Within this time, you may forward any email sent to your Andrew account to a new email account; follow steps provided in the Computing Beyond Carnegie Mellon document.

After the 90-day period, your Andrew account will no longer exist and thus will no longer be able to forward to your new account. To avoid losing important mail messages, you should either begin using:
• Your new email address
• Your alumni address
For additional information on Alumni accounts, visit Carnegie Mellon's Alumni web site www.cmu.edu/alumni.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATIONS
All Economics alumni are invited to join and make use of the CMU Alumni Association, the Tepper School of Business Alumni Networks, and Carnegie Mellon Undergraduate Economics Program Alumni group on Linked-In.
