

Transportation Services

General Violations

1. Parking in a lot other than the one designated by permit. The only exceptions to this violation are:
 - 1.1. Employees with off-campus permits may park in the East Campus Garage, Dithridge Street Garage or at 6555 Penn Avenue (see Policies: Off-Campus Employee Parking); or the College of Fine Arts Lot (CFA) for Board of Trustees.
 - 1.2. Permit holders complying with procedures during a snow emergency (see Policies: Snow Emergency).
2. Improper parking
 - 2.1. Failure to park within the lines.
 - 2.2. Parking without proper display of permit
 - 2.2.1. Parking Services requires all permit holders to display the permit hang tag on the rearview mirror of the vehicle. There will be a one-time forgiveness for permit holders not displaying their hang tags. After the one-time forgiveness, a ticket for non-display of the hang tag will be issued.
 - 2.3. Parking compact vehicles in full-size spaces when compact spaces are available.
3. Failure to report campus accidents to University Police.
4. Performing non-emergency maintenance on vehicles in Carnegie Mellon University parking areas.
5. Parking in reserved parking spaces.
 - 5.1. Only authorized vehicles may park in reserved spaces, such as the spaces in the Cohon University Center parking lot, and Greek Quad area. These are enforced 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, and violators will be receive a ticket or be subject to towing.
 - 5.2. Subcompact vehicles must park in the designated subcompact assigned parking spaces. Any full size vehicle or compact vehicle parking in the subcompact car spaces will be issued a ticket. For a list and definition of what is considered a “subcompact car”, please visit:
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Subcompact_car
6. Destruction or theft of parking property.
 - 6.1. It is a violation to manufacture or alter a parking permit or devices that provide eligibility to park on campus. Permits will be confiscated without refund, and violators will lose parking privileges. Anyone found using an illegal permit will be prosecuted.
 - 6.2. It is a violation for a permit holder to use a code at the entrance/exit gates of the East Campus Garage. You must use your CMU ID or parking card.
 - 6.3. Transfer of a parking permit is illegal and will result in a fine and the permit will be confiscated and loss of lose parking privileges.
7. Unauthorized removal of an immobilizer.
8. Parking at yellow curbs.
9. Use of improper or fraudulent means to obtain or exercise parking privileges and similar actions.